Welcome COLOR Digital Design

For Welcoming New Ideas.....New Format and ALWAYS Loving
DANCING

President's Note

As we have stated recently, MASDA is making some changes. This will be the last print version of Footnotes and will transition to an online version. The decision to move to an electronic format was not an easy one but one that we see as necessary. Footnotes will continue to bring our members the latest dance information and news from the Atlanta Metro square dancing world. This is a change that we were not eager to make but are excited to explore the possibilities of this new format.

We would like to thank Pete Risse for decades of hard work on putting Footnotes together and ready to print. He has truly been the driving force that provided this publication for us over the years. Thanks Pete, Footnotes couldn't have been done without you! We love you, man, you are the best.

Another change, we will be stepping down as Presidents of MASDA. We have moved out of the area and our circumstances have changed so we will no longer be able to serve. Bill Jarrett has offered to take the reins for the remainder of the year and the board has approved. It has been an honor to have served MASDA and we appreciate the opportunity. We want to thank the MASDA board for their understanding and support over the years, we appreciate you all.

Finally, we would like to thank all the members of MASDA, callers and cuers past and present for your support, help and encouragement over the years, it has been a wonderful experience. Best of luck to everyone and God bless you all.

God bless America and us all. Be well my friends and we will see you very soon.

Eric & Cindy

A Note From Your Outgoing Editor

I don't know if you have heard, but this will be the last printed version of Footnotes. The good news is that Footnotes is NOT going away; it will transition to an electronic format and will now be available to view (or print) online. Every member of MASDA will have access to the online version as long as we have your e-mail address.

Along with this change, I will no longer be the editor of Footnotes. Placing this publication online requires hardware which I do not have. However, I am pleased to announce that Karen Mann, a member of Kennesaw Square Dealers, has taken on the challenge. Karen came up with the idea of placing it online and she has the necessary hardware and was more than willing to assume this duty. There are several benefits with this change: it eliminates the cost for printing and mailing and it changes the rules for ad submission. Ads can now be up to a full-page size and can now even be in COLOR.

I have been your editor for the past 34 years. When I started as editor, Footnotes consisted of 48 pages with 69 ads; now it is down to 8 pages and 5 ads. I have enjoyed being your editor, but due to the change of going digital, it was necessary to make a change in the editorial staff and to pass the job to someone who had the necessary hardware and experience to place this online.

Pete Risse

WELCOME TO DIGITAL FOOTNOTES

Hello, MASDA Dancers! I'm Karen Mann, your new Footnotes Editor. I've been square and round dancing for over 30 years, serving in various officer positions with Kennesaw Square Dealers over that time. I've belonged to MASDA for years and served as Vice President in the 1990's. I'm excited about this new role and the opportunity to work with the MASDA Board.

For MASDA members, some things about digital Footnotes will be new, but hopefully, they will be familiar to you. Just like GSSDA's Dixie Crier, an email with an attached PDF file will be sent to club officers for forwarding to their members. Independent and former dancers will receive Footnotes directly, so your email addresses need to be sent to kjmann1@att.net. We will also collect them at MASDA dances.

For the club officers, ads can be half or full page and full color is definitely encouraged. In your ad, include information about special dances, classes, and out-of-town callers, as those separate sections will be eliminated. Officers will send Word or PowerPoint ads to kjmann1@att.net by the 15th of the month. In the future, we may return to monthly Footnotes.

The savings from printing and postage expenses will be used for our dances. If you have questions, please send me an email.

Thank you so much, Pete Risse, for 34 years of creating MASDA's Footnotes!

Karen
