Happy Easter

President's Note

Easter is around the corner, and hopefully, so is the warm weather. You know, those two or three nice sunny days with temps in the mid '70s!

Thanks to all the dancers that joined us for the great MASDA dance in February! Our next MASDA dance will be at a different location, so be sure to check the flier in Footnotes. Saturday April 29th, we'll feature Carlene Bohannon cueing rounds and Clyde Couch & John Norris will be spinning the vinyl for the squares. These three should make for a very interesting and fun filled afternoon.

Charlie Petrea has a new weekly podcast that premiered Sunday, March 12th, titled "Square Dance Callers, Talking". His first interview was with Shawn Butler and it was a great show. Charlie has some amazing callers lined up, so check it out! Here's the link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wRm2T7vdybw>

If you're still debating about renewing your membership, MASDA has a great schedule for the year, as you can see below. That makes the $25 a pretty good deal! Please support MASDA. Hope to see you in a square!

SQUARE DANCE TRIVIA

As we're thinking especially of Jimmy Carter these days --
An Article from Carol and Jay Sargent

I was reminded of a newspaper article about Jimmy Carter that I have saved all these years amongst my square dancing memorabilia, and I thought you might find it quite interesting, if you don't already know about it. The following is verbatim from the article:

"Atlanta (AP) JAN 4, 2012 -- Jimmy Carter may never have been president if he didn't go square dancing. The Georgia Democrat credits a rural square dance club he joined in 1953 with helping him win a state Senate seat by a scant 66 votes. He shared the story in his latest book, "Through the Years with Jimmy Carter."

He writes: "If I hadn't received support from our square-dancing friends, I would have lost and never become a state senator. And if that had occurred, I never would have run for office again."

We hope you enjoy this fascinating, basically unheard-of information about Jimmy Carter.
