August 2023

August Is National Peach Month

Bring Your Peach To A Dance

President's Note

We hope everyone has made their plans to attend the MASDA dance on July 29th at Mountain View. Randy, Dan & Sandra would appreciate having a full dance floor!

Please be aware that we are making a change with MASDA dues. As you remember, we adjusted our membership dues schedule to a standard calendar year. Insurance coverage is on the same schedule. To get your insurance paid on time, we are asking MASDA members to pay their dues by the end of November. You may pay your dues at the dance on September 30th, or the dance on November 11th, or you may mail them to Mike & Marcia Massey. Pat Inglis will then create a list for the clubs of 2024 paid MASDA members and clubs will collect insurance from non-MASDA club members. For Independents who do not want to join MASDA, but do want insurance, they need to pay at one of the above MASDA dances or mail the insurance to Pat Inglis.

At our last Board meeting, we heard some suggestions that one club sent us on things that might help with the attendance to MASDA dances. It would be great if the other clubs would send in suggestions to help increase, not only attendance at dances, but also to MASDA membership. All suggestions made will be discussed at the Board meeting.

The Board talked us into staying for another year, so we do not need a President for next year. However, we do need a Webmaster, as you may have noticed if you logged into our webpage lately. If anyone is interested, please let one of the Board members know. If we are to continue to pay for the webpage, then we need to keep it updated.

Hope to see you in a square soon!

Bill and Julie

BLAST FROM THE PAST

By MASDA Historian Pete Risse

This article appeared in the September 1974 issue of Footnotes.

The former president of the Druid Hillbillies [a MASDA club which was active between 1963 to 1998] contacted his buddy at the Georgia State University, who was in charge of the Atlanta Falcons half-time entertainment, to see if a couple of squares from their club could perform during the half-time of the pre-season game between the Atlanta Falcons and the Cincinnati Bengals. He took him up on it. However, word got out about this event and other dancers soon joined in on the event and before long it had expanded to 35 squares, which was the capacity of their budget. Many more dancers wanted to join but the cutoff point was reached long before all those dancers who wanted to perform could get their names on the list, much to everyone's regret. Bill McVey, their club's caller, did the calling and it was a great experience. Not only did a stadium full of fans see this event, it was also televised on NBC TV so the whole country saw this event. What a way to advertise and promote square dancing.
