Happy Mother's Day

President's Note

Last month we announced our new MASDA website: <https://MASDA.net>
 Here are some pointers on using the site. Check it out!

Getting On The Site

Most people will be able to get on using masda.net, but some have said they had to use MASDA.net, that MASDA must be capitalized. See what works best for you. The site adjusts to the size of device you are using, whether phone, laptop, iPad, etc. If you have a wide screen, you'll see the menu items across the top of the page. If your screen is smaller, you'll see the "hamburger" icon with a hint to "Click the circle below to bring up the menu".

Browsing The Site

Right now, the most valuable information for the dancers is found in the CALENDAR and NEWSLETTERS sections. The CALENDAR section contains information about upcoming dances and can be viewed at certain time intervals by using the Date Range dropdown list. Clicking the Details box lets you see the Footnotes ad linked to the event. Not sure where the venue is? We even have the GPS listed! As we said last month, NEWSLETTERS contains this year's Footnotes issues. If you need to connect with a MASDA Officer, please use the CONTACT section.

We hope all Square and Round dance clubs will use our site to advertise their dances. The more support we get from our MASDA Federation area, the better we can be of benefit to our dancers.

We had a great dance on April 7th with Shawn Butler, Charlie Petrea, and Sandra Hirschler, but attendance was disappointing. With only one couple on the floor at 2:00 pm, we are considering ending Early Rounds. Please mark your calendar now for our next dance. Randy, Dan, and Aneesa Barge will have a great dance for us!

See you in a Square soon!
 Bill and Julie
